Imagine driving towards the gates of one of the loveliest villas you've ever seen: one which is both welcoming and looks magnificent set in the huge gardens which surround it – and you're picturing Saint Georges Villa. Approached through gates, up a sweeping drive which flows through well kept and private gardens, this villa is a total must for those seeking total privacy, space, lovely views and internal features which make living in the sun pleasant and comfortable.

A family owned large four bedroomed villa, Saint Georges has been designed to be a home –with spacious living areas on the ground floor, plus access to a ground floor bedroom – and three large bedrooms on the upper floor. Built with curved verandahs to maximise the views of the surrounding Sea Caves area, this villa is a pleasure to offer to holiday makers.
